

Research Meeting March 2022

Reading Pathological Society

The Reading Pathological Society and School of Biomedical Sciences at the University of Reading are pleased to announce the inaugural joint Research Meeting between the Royal Berkshire Health Trust and University of Reading

Venue: The Meadow Suite, University of Reading, Whiteknights Campus, Reading, RG6 6AH

23rd March 2022

Programme

18.15-18.20 Welcome Speech by Dr Carl Waldmann
President of Reading Pathological Society
Consultant in Intensive Care Medicine and Anaesthesia Royal Berkshire Hospital

18.20-18.40 Professor Jon Gibbins
Professor of Cell Biology, University of Reading

Title of presentation: New innovations in precision medicine approaches for thrombosis prevention

18.45-19.05 Dr Chris Blick
Consultant Urologist, Royal Berkshire Health Trust

Title of presentation: A 'world first' – TARGET study – using augmented reality and artificial intelligence in the diagnosis of prostate cancer

19.10-19.35 Dr Apu Chatterjee and Professor Ketan Patel
AC, Consultant in Elderly Care, Royal Berkshire Health Trust
KP, School of Biomedical Sciences, University of Reading

Debate/discussion - Sarcopenia research opportunities between Royal Berkshire Health Trust and University of Reading

19.40-21.00 Pizza and drinks

To reserve your place at this free event please contact Ketan Patel
(email ketan.patel@reading.ac.uk)

